FEAST OF HOLY FAMILY 30TH & 31ST DECEMBER 2017

REFLECTIONS OF THE WEEK: Jesus was born in a family and grew up in wisdom and grace before God and man. He was obedient to his parents and was their source of joy. Jesus, Mary and Joseph have cherished mutual love, a feeling of oneness, respect for one another, and shared the responsibilities, joys and sorrows in a family life. The church presents it as an ideal family to us. The church is the family of the children of God and it is the assembly of the believers in Jesus Christ and his Gospel. The church is the visible body of invisible Jesus. Family is the first school and the first church for the young. Here they learn what is right, what is good and what is kind. Here they share the joys and sorrows together. Here the fathers and mothers are respected and loved. Family is the place where money is not as important as loving kindness. Life in modern world is plagued by many destructive tendencies especially of the youth. We notice a general deterioration of social values. The family is the first and the best school of human formation. The quality of the family life truly reflects the life-style of the children. A good Christian presupposes a good family life. Only a good person can contribute to a good society. Today, children are reminded to recognize the worth of their parents and to respect and honour them. In the Holy family there was no selfishness. Our families must reflect the spirit of the Holy Family. Children are God's gift, so we must love and bring them up well. Let us pray that, Jesus, as the member of every family we may grow in grace so that our families may become like the Holy Family of Nazareth. (Pastor's desk)
